GENERAL:

Built in 1902, Shenandoah simply embodies historic grace and timeless class. Time on board is a full immersion into the relaxing atmosphere of a bygone era. Not only her beauty, but even her motion under sail resonates with a deep authenticity. Completely refitted to allow ease of use in unparalleled comfort and safety with current machinery and systems.

ACCOMMODATIONS:

Lower Deck

Master Stateroom

The stunning full beam Master stateroom consists of a double and a single bed. 3 large wardrobes, 2 large cabinets and ample storage for books on bookshelves. You also have a large en suite with 2 basins, bidet, toilet and shower, and an exquisite skylight that provides an abundance of light and natural ventilation throughout the stateroom. Not forgetting the 'secret door' to the Nav Station.

The stateroom is connected to all areas of the yacht via Bedside and Deck telephones on PBX. As well as communication systems, you have a work desk with wireless and wired internet and a display monitor linked to the chart plotter. Real time weather information is provided by B&G instruments.

For quiet time and entertainment, you have a 27" iMac which is linked to the network entertainment system and controlled through an iPad and a state of the art Linn stereo system.

Starboard Guest Stateroom

The Starboard guest stateroom consists of a beautiful double bed and a stunning en suite bathroom that provides you with a bidet, toilet, basin and shower.

The stateroom also has a standalone music and entertainment system and a skylight providing you with natural light and ventilation.

Port Forward Guest Stateroom

The Port forward guest stateroom offers you a beautiful double bed and the option of a single bed above, making this stateroom a wonderful option for a couple with a child or for a nanny. Once again it has its own en suite, offering a bidet, toilet, basin and shower.

It too has a standalone music and entertainment system and a skylight providing you with natural light and ventilation.

Port Aft Guest Stateroom

The Port aft guest stateroom has a beautiful double bed and also a detachable single bed above. Once again this is a wonderful stateroom that gives you options and versatility for guests with or without children. Naturally this stateroom also has its own en suite, offering a bidet, toilet, basin and shower. Not surprisingly, it has its own standalone music and entertainment system.

Dining Room/Main saloon

This magnificent area of the yacht is simply bristling with stunning features and precision engineering. It has a 3-part custom 'Shenandoah' gimbal table which offers dining for up to 10 guests as well as a large L-shaped sofa for 6 people who wish to relax after dinner while being treated to music on the Steinway Mini Grand Piano. This sofa area also provides wine storage underneath. For additional storage you have bookshelves, CD shelves and DVD shelves throughout.

For added atmosphere or entertainment, you have a 55" Samsung 3D LED television, Linn stereo system and an Apple media server (entertainment system), which is controlled wirelessly through an iPad. Natural light and ventilation are provided by a large skylight.

Crew Accommodation;

Captain – a spacious double cabin with separate office attached and a shared head

Mate – A double cabin which has a desk and a shared head with the Master

Bosun/Chef - 2 x Single bunks with a shared head

Stewardesses - 2 x Single bunks with a shared head

Engineers – 2 x Single bunks with a private head

Deckhands – 3 x Single bunks in the forepeak with private head

Main Deck;

The Cockpit area provides a wonderfully comfortable and safe area to enjoy a day's sailing in comfort and for a magnificent al fresco dining experience for up to 10 guests.

COMMENTS AND NOTEWORTHY FEATURES AT A GLANCE

Shenandoah is perhaps the most famous and desirable of all the classic yachts afloat today. She combines all the attributes that make a yacht great – beauty, comfort, speed, and of course an excellent pedigree. After the chequered history that so many of her sisters have also lived through, Shenandoah is now enjoying the finest days in her long life, with an excellent Captain and crew looking after her every need. Following several refits over the last 15 years, she is now in a condition which will enable her to go on into the next century as gracefully as she entered this one, with many more long and exciting voyages ahead. Her fine and sea kindly hull has already graced the waters of the Pacific, the Antarctic, the North Atlantic, and many more, and now it is time for a new custodian to take the helm.
